

RESUME OF HOWELL B. (“BENNIE”) WILLIAMS, III

Summary of qualifications:

Over 30 years experience as a Certified Public Accountant, Real Estate developer, homebuilder, and Financial Consultant with emphasis on Corporate Finance, the publicly-traded securities markets, and cutting-edge Energy and Mining Technology. Major stockholder and financial consultant for TransEnergy [TENG] an Oil and Gas exploration and Development Company with extensive holdings and drilling experience in West Virginia. Working with major world scientists on conversion of gas to liquid fuel at the well site, enhanced oil and gas recovery and cutting-edge mining technology.

Education:

1962 – 1966:

Newberry College - BS in Accounting

1966 – 1967:

Univ. of South Carolina - Graduate Studies

1968 – 1969:

Univ. of Alabama - Graduate Studies

1972:

Obtained CPA Certificate

Professional experience:

2023 – Present:

Next Generation Mining, Inc.

Director

2017 — Current:

Apache Mill Tailings USA, Inc.

Director & acting Secretary

2005:

Present – Founding Member - Alliance Investment Capital
Panama/US (AIC)

Founded AIC with 2 other partners to fill a niche in institutional transactions across national borders via Letters of Credit and Bank Guarantees Utilizing the AIC platform to aid clients in both operating Oil and Gas sites, coal mines, and delivery contracts of product.

Formed a group of Scientific Advisors dedicated to cutting-edge technologies for Enhanced Oil and Gas Recovery and increased profit margins from Oil and Gas wells, coal production, and gas to liquid fuel conversion at the well site. Also development of cutting-edge proprietary technology for pulverizing ore and separation of precious metals

1982 – 2005:

Sole Owner - R.E. Investments South Carolina – Developer, Builder and Broker-in-Charge of Real Estate Company; Financial Consultant.

Assisted the government of Indonesia with major prepaid oil contract.

Worked in London, England on commodity and gold contracts.

As a board member of Trinity International assisted the government of Columbia with low cost housing solutions for capital city of Bogota.

Chairman of the Board of Greater Northwestern Research and Development, 1993-1996 (a publicly traded company). Stock rose from $.25 to $10.50 during this period.

Spearheaded taking TALH public via reverse merger (1996).

Consulted on various real estate projects in NC, SC, GA and FL.

1996 – 2003:

Senior Partner Access Capital North Carolina

Brought wealth of financial contacts to emerging commercial mortgage and asset-based finance company, allowing it to grow to market leader in the Carolinas with millions in annual production.

Orchestrated sale of company to publicly traded wholesale lender.

Senior Partner of the Bond Street Capital office in Charleston, SC, a large investment banking firm specializing in commercial real estate lending.

1973-1996:

Land Developer/Realtor

Development South Carolina

Built residential homes and light commercial properties.

Developed six subdivisions averaging 250 lots, and managed a building company with approximately 100 starts per year.

Formed and owned (Broker-in-Charge) of a real estate sales company with in excess of 30 agents.

1971-1975:

Ernst and Ernst South Carolina

Ernst and Ernst (now Ernst and Young) purchased our existing CPA firm, and assigned me as Supervisor-in-Charge of the first year audit of Citizens and Southern Bank (now BankAmerica). Responsible for developing an audit program for each banking department.

1966-1971:

Knight, Beale & Amp; Montgomery CPAs South Carolina

In 1970, our firm merged with Finch and Jackson CPA's to form the largest private CPA firm in South Carolina. Then merged with Ernst and Ernst.

My duties were to prepare system analysis, audit programs, financial statements and tax returns for proprietorships, partnerships and corporations.